GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION CALLS ATTENTION TO IMPORTANCE OF GOOD ORAL HYGIENE, PROPER TOOTH ALIGNMENT

ALL SMILES -- Rep. Louis Kafka visited the Stoughton office of ARCH Orthodontics to present a Proclamation from Governor Deval Patrick marking Dental Health Awareness Month in Massachusetts. Accepting the Proclamation are Dr. Robert Chavez (left) and his son Dr. Andrew Chase who operate seven ARCH Orthodontics offices south of Boston. Issuance of the Proclamation coincides with National Orthodontic Health Month. As part of the awareness campaign, during the month the Orthodontists are also appearing on cable TV, are sponsoring a Halloween candy collection drive for overseas troops. Drs. Chavez and Chase recently announced that ARCH is the first 'Official Orthodontist' of the Miss Massachusetts Scholarship Foundation. Dr. Chavez, who has been in practice for 37 years and has improved thousands of smiles, tells patients "an improved smile can improve your self image and boost your confidence." ARCH Orthodontics has offices in Stoughton, Bridgewater, Brockton, Canton, Hyde Park, Randolph and Westwood, and offers free initial consultation including digital photos and panoramic x-rays.
