ROGER TAYLOR, D.M.D., JOINS ARCH ORTHODONTICS Brings 17 Years of Experience with Children and Adults

(ISSUED WINTER 2012) -- Roger Taylor, D.M.D., an Orthodontist with 17 years of experience, has been named the newest Associate at ARCH Orthodontics which operates seven offices south of Boston.

The announcement was made by Dr. Robert Chavez, founder of ARCH, and by his son and partner, Dr. Andrew Chase who first met Dr. Taylor when they were both studying at the Boston University School of Dental Medicine.

Dr. Chase said, "Patients find Dr. Taylor to be extremely insightful and caring. He brings to our practice and shares with our team the highest level of compassion and respect for patients. He shares our goal of providing extraordinary results and amazing smiles."

Dr. Taylor graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Florida in 1986. He received his Doctorate in Dental Medicine with honors in 1991 and continued his studies at the University of Florida College of Dentistry. While in Dental School, Dr. Taylor served as President of his class and represented the University at the International Association for Dental Research. In 1993, Dr. Taylor received his Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Orthodontics from Boston University. After graduating from his Orthodontic residency, he practiced in Florida.

A member of the American Association of Orthodontists, Dr. Taylor says he is returning to the Boston area because, "I miss the change in seasons and all the wonderful things that New England has to offer." In his spare time, he enjoys skiing, traveling, and exercising.

ARCH Orthodontics is the first 'Official Orthodontist of Miss Massachusetts.' Molly Whalen of Middleborough will compete in Las Vegas on January 14, to be televised on ABC -TV. ARCH has offices in Stoughton, Bridgewater, Brockton, Canton, Hyde Park, Randolph and Westwood. Arch Orthodontics offers free initial consultation including digital photos and panoral x-rays.
